"Build the New Hotel"

Is the Popular Verdict of Hammond Citizens

A STATEMENT THAT WARRANTS PUBLISHING FACTS

Loyal, untiring enterprise has pledged itself for civic benefit, and a tremendous undertaking of erecting a new 9 story hotel in our city. It has been completely planned and the proposition is under way. You know at once the bright possibilities, if you know Hammond and its present needs. For Hammond's last census, and its record for years, places it in American annals as one of the best cities of its size. It is a commercial center of greatest importance, claiming men of the finest calibre, of enviable prestige in the business world, undisputed leaders in their field, who direct the work of thousands in the vast steel industries and numerous other manufacturing enterprises. Hammond is a most attractive field for both skilled and unskilled labor. And labor is the one answer to the problems of the day.

Hammond has a steadily increasing population today of more than 36,000. Hundreds of new residents are added each month, for there is everything in Hammond that promotes sound living. Hammond has splendid stores, good theatres, excellent schools, an abundance of churches, a residence section that would be a credit to a city many times its size; and in addition many other improved conditions.

Hammond Has Much That Many Cities are Without—But Hammond Has No Hotel of the Class Worthy of the Progressive, Enterprising City That It Is!

The building of this modern Hotel is a great opportunity for every citizen. It is primarily in his interests, and of unlimited benefit to the city of Hammond.
